St. James's, December 5, 1781.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Saturday the 17th of November last, between Six and Seven o'Clock in the Evening, Thomas Kent, Farmer, of Benington in the County of Hertford, was stopped, in his Return from Hertford Market, at a Place called Cutting Hill, by some Person or Persons unknown, who robbed him of what Money he had in his Pockets, fractured his Skull in several Places, and then tossed him into his Cart, and set the Horse going, which carried him Home; and that the said Thomas Kent languished of his Wounds 'till the Monday following, when he expired: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HILLSBOROUGH.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Earl of Salisbury, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, doth hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, and the Parish of Bennington aforesaid an additional Reward of THIRTY POUNDS, to any Person making such Discovery as above-mentioned, (except as before excepted) to be respectively paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

Stamp-Office, December 4, 1781.

WHereas Information has been given to the Commissioners of this Office, that frequent Attempts have been made to dispose of unstamped Almanacks, by Persons hawking the same at Markets and Fairs in different Parts of the Kingdom; the Commissioners therefore, to prevent such Practices, do hereby give this Public Notice, That, by an Act made in the 30th Year of His late Majesty, every Person who shall sell, utter, or expose to Sale, any Almanack, not being stamped as by the several Laws are directed, may be committed by One Justice, if convicted upon the Oath of One Witness, to the House of Correction for Three Months; and it shall be lawful for any Person to seize and apprehend any Person so offending, and take him before such Justice; and every Person so seizing or apprehending such Offender shall, upon his Conviction, be intitled to a Reward of Twenty Shillings, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Stamp Duties. And the Commissioners, for the more conveniently receiving the said Reward by the Persons intitled to the same, have given Orders to their Distributors in the several Counties to pay the same.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Brettell, Secretary.
